Mrs. H. J. Kerr:

Dear Sir:

For a week now I have been trying to make myself go back to College, but I cannot. The joy has gone out of my labor. Without a little happiness in our daily life it is not much worth. Therefore, I have decided to resign. I have sent my resignation to the Pres of the Board of Trustees desiring that it may take effect on the 1st of Oct. 1903.

Trusting & believing that this resignation will be in accord with your wishes, I will work no hardship upon the institution. I will subscribe myself

Very Respectfully Yours
Sara Godwin Goodwin
